Today in school we talked about cyberbullying and how someone can be very upset and hurt by it. We learned that if we are cyberbullied we should follow these rules:

- Don't reply to messages that upset or annoy you.
- Keep the Message: You don't have to read it, but keep it to show the person you report it to.
- Block the Sender: You don't need to put up with someone upsetting you.
- Tell an adult you trust who can help.

We also learned that if we are aware that someone else is being cyberbullied we should:

- Let that person know we support them.
- Not join in or share any comments, posts or pictures that may hurt others.
- Report the bullying to someone who can help - a parent or teacher.
- Report the cyberbullying to the platform.

A report should be made to the Gardaí in serious cases of bullying and cyberbullying.
