

THE FULL PICTURE

What do you think each of the characters featured in the Full Picture video are trying to convey about themselves on social media?

Pick one character from the Full Picture that you think feels pressure to post content they think will make them more popular? What do they do that makes you think this?

Pick one character that you think posts content that is more authentic or reflects their personality or interests? What do they do that makes you think this?

Do you think there is the same amount of pressure on boys and girls now to look a certain way online? Why or why not?